A.M.S. Sponsors Jig; Contest Winners Named

Dance Serves As Prelude To State Day At Fair

The Sweethearts of S. F. State Campus will be announced and awarded trophies at the A.M.S. dance tonight at nine o'clock in the Women's Gym.

This is the semi-annual dance of the Associated Men Students, and this year it will serve as a prelude to State Day at the Fair and as host to the winners of the Sweethearts Contest.

Pete Rugolo and his rhythm-iteers will beat out the rug cutting tempo.

The A.M.S. promises surprise door prizes for the persons with the lucky stubs . . . the long end of the campus Sweethearts voting ticket.

Phi Epsilon Mu, physical education fraternity, will award separate trophies to the boy and girl winners. In addition to the trophies, a free trip to the Fair on State Day at the fair is scheduled for those graced with the largest number of votes.

Votes for the contestants were sold at a penny apiece. The proceeds of the entire voting will be placed in the student loan fund.

This dance will be the last evening campus dance of the semester.

Voting in the Sweethearts Contest terminated yesterday, but the results will not be made public until the dance tonight. According to the latest rumors, Thelma Rastad and Dave Schiller are leading the other contestants by a wide margin.

Deans Award Scholarship At Noon Jig

Reviewing applications which had to be in Wednesday, the Deans Committee, under Dean P. F. Valentine, expects to have their selections for the thirty-dollar scholarship read for publication at the noon dance this coming Wednesday.

Dean Valentine Another prerequisite for the scholarship is that all applicants must have studied at State for two semesters. The award is payable on registration day in the fall.

The traditional dinner for SAE members will be held in an Italian restaurant in North Beach Friday evening. The plans for their annual installation dinner, to be held in the near future, will be discussed between courses.

Mr. Frank Fenton, Associate Professor of English, was named chairman of the sub-committee of the Association of Bay Region English teachers investigating teaching and scholarship requirements for colleges and universities, last Saturday in a meeting at the University of California.

STATE DAY AT FAIR

Sixth Debate Tournament Starts Today

Semi-Annual High School Debate Given By State Sponsors

Prep school speakers from the four points of the compass will begin to drift into the Activities Room tonight at five o'clock to register for the Eighth Semi-Annual Pacific Coast Invitational High School Forensic Tournament.

Debaters have been working on their cases; framing trick attacks, sharpening their logic, and polishing their presentation the whole of this school year. Consequently, the teams that walk off with the gold cup, reserved for the finalists, are expected to give their families and friends a lot of trouble in trying to hush them up.

Grants Pass, the Oregon school that copped the debate trophy, is returning to protect its laurels, while local Lowell High, under the tutelage of a Mr. Lorbeer, is out for blood; having entered 16—sixteen teams—16!

Applications have been received from the present holders of the oratory awards. There being two divisions: Men's and women's. There are four schools represented in this field. Orations are written on any subject of the choice of the speakers, but they must be original. Sacred Heart, as usual, is considered the toughest contender in men's oratory, with St. Joseph's Presentation Academy sharing the spot for women's oratory.

The most exciting for the audience, and exhilarating for the speakers is the field of extempore speech. The speakers have only a half hour to prepare a topic chosen at random from current issues of TIME magazine.

This contest, it is opined, is the best test of public speaking

PATRON'S ASSOCIATION CAKES GO ON SALE

Completed plans for the Patrons Association cookie and home made goods sale next Wednesday were announced today by Dean Mary A. Ward.

Home made candy, cake, cookies and buns will be placed on sale on the campus and at the noon dance for the benefit of the almost depleted loan fund.

Twenty girls will be on the campus selling the goods, orders being taken in advance by Dean Ward for whole cakes. A three-layer cake will cost students and others 75 cents, while a two-layer cake will cost 50 cents.

Other home made goods than cookies and cakes will also be placed on sale, according to Dean Ward.

Ways, Means Comm. Fail To Get Quorum; Action Impossible

Golden Gater Office, San Francisco State College:
Bill still up in air. Trying to get organized.

Cliff Worth.

Sacramento, Calif., May 3, 1939.
—Because of a lack of a quorum at their regular Tuesday evening meeting, the Ways and Means committee of the Assembly was unable to move the S. F. State College bills out to the floor.

Last week the committee failed by one vote to give the necessary eleven ayes to report the bill out of committee. Last night there were only eight of the 21 members present, the vote being five to three on a motion for a favorable report.

S. B. 347, therefore, is still in the hands of the Ways and Means Committee, and according to Cliff Worth, student body president, the bill will be voted on again when a quorum is present.

The long delay has been caused by the inability of the San Francisco delegation to agree on certain matters of policy. Early this morning Tom Maloney, veteran Assemblyman from the Mission District and chairman of the San Francisco delegation, announced that he was dissatisfied with the progress of the bills so far and was prepared to step in at once and

Macbeth Play Postponed For Cast Member

Illness in the family of one of the prominent members of the cast has resulted in the postponement of the presentation of "Macbeth" from tonight to Wednesday, May 10, at eight-fifteen, it was announced today by Norbert Nichols.

Following the performance in Frederic Burk Auditorium, arrangements are being made to adapt the plan for presentation to the English classes at Galileo High School.

Costumes of the Anglo-Saxon period are being designed and created for the play by members of the cast. The production of the popular Shakespearean classic is under the joint sponsorship of faculty members; Miss Jessie Casebolt of College Theater, and Dr. Elias T. Arneson of the English department. Actual direction is in charge of a group of students, headed by Norbert Nichols and Vern Rees.

All State students and their friends are invited to attend "Macbeth," and no admission charges are to be made.

BRUMMAL, EGAN WIN ELECTION

Hilarious festivity vied with election tenseness Wednesday evening at Sienna House as State Newmanites dined, danced and balloted for new officers.

Results found Wade Patrick Brummal emerging without opposition as 1939-40 President of the National Catholic Scholastic Organization. He will succeed Guido Fumagalli, graduating senior, as chief of staff of the Newman Club.

Other returns gave Gertrude Egan the vice-presidency while James Synon was elected treasurer and Mary Bowers won the secretary post. Tommy Beggs completed the list of new officers by winning out in the race for sergeant-at-arms.

Besides President Fumagalli, other outgoing officers include: Jeri Fontana, vice-president; Steve Parodi, treasurer; Virginia Cullen, secretary; and Gaetano Stella, sergeant-at-arms.

Six additional members will be elected to complete the club executive board at the first meeting in the fall semester. A committee will be appointed to carry on Newman functions during the summer session.

Music Fair Feature Vies With Girl Contest As Island Attraction

Two performances of the greatest musical extravaganza in the college's history will be the featured attraction tomorrow in the San Francisco State Day at the Fair.

Brilliant dancers, the most talented of State's singers, and the one hundred piece college symphony orchestra will swell the number of students participating to over five hundred, according to Vernon Rees, chairman.

Centering all activities in Festival Hall in the Foods and Beverages Building, the college will entertain Fair visitors with the cream of State talent.

Ballet Artist Van Arsdale

The dancers, featuring Audrey Stewart, Frances Twohig and Jean Van Arsdale, will specialize in a musical chairs number and several accompanying dances. The College Symphony and Chorus will augment the dancers with musical selections and accompaniment.

Also featured on the program will be the presentation of cups and awards to the winners of the Golden Gater Outdoor Girl Contest, the Sweethearts Contest, and to the Campus Queen, Frances Kelleher.

The State Day festivities will be free of charge to all visitors on the island. All State students will have to pay the regular admission price to the island. Performances will be held in the afternoon and in the evening in the Festival Hall.

The faculty committee assisting Chairman Rees included Mrs. Spelman, Miss Mayer, Mrs. Stephenson, Dr. Knuth, Dr. Valentine, Miss Ely, and Miss Van Gelder, the dance director.—E.M.

J. McAndrews Tells Senior Week Program

Senior Ball Ducats Now On Sale; Going Fast Says Committee

Final plans for the Senior Ball in the Empire Room of the Sir Francis Drake on May 20 were announced today by John McAndrews, Senior President.

Paul Law and his orchestra will furnish the music of the event, the opening feature of Senior Week.

Bids are on sale for $1.75 a couple, the number being limited. The Ball is dedicated to State of the Future, that theme being carried out in bids and programs.

The following are the events planned by the Senior Class for Senior Week:

1. The Ball, May 20. State College bracelets given to all women as souvenirs. Committee including Lois Herber, Vern Rees, John McAndrews, Bill Rose, Lorraine Arata, Peggy Lewis, Jean Dooley, Madeline Ghiglione and Gloria Barusch.

PUBLICATIONS DINNER LOCALE ANNOUNCED AS SAN REMO RESTAURANT

The semi-annual Pub Dinner will be held at the San Remo, North Beach restaurant, on Friday evening, May 12.

Gift, menu and decoration arrangements are being made under the chairmanship of Jim Martin, director of publications.

The highlight of the evening will be the announcement of next semester's editor of Gater, editor of Franciscan, business manager of Gater, business manager of Franciscan and advertising managers of both, and managing editors of the Gater. Alex Edelstein, next fall's director of publication, will announce next year's board of publications.

The speaker for the evening will be either Paul Speegle, Chronicle drama critic, or Pat Casey, president of the Newspaper Guild.

Jean Dooley, editor of the Franciscan, will make the official dedication of the book.

BASEBALL TEAM

It Wants Money

At the present time there is before the finance committee of the executive board a request for ten dollars which has been tendered by the baseball team of this college through their representative.

The Golden Gater would like to see this ten dollars turned over to the parties involved.

The Golden Gater would also like to see, and strongly urges, the student body of this college to support the movement which led to the request for ten dollars.

Wednesday the baseball players began selling raffle tickets to the general student body, proceeds of which are to go towards the purchase of traveling jackets. The ten dollars asked from the board will be the prize for the lucky number. But every number, whether it wins or no, will be a lucky number. It's your certificate to show that you have done something for the baseball team that has been doing things for State all semester.

Ten dollars is a small sum, to be sure, but we ask the committee to consider the one or two players who will not get that jacket if they report unfavorably.

We are sure that the student body will not object to ten dollars more in the red. After all, we'll owe it.

A. M. S. DANCE

Final Gym Swing

Tonight, in the local dance emporium, the Women's Gymnasium, the A.M.S. will throw their annual dance and faith, true to tell, they'll have something different.

For tonight the click of coppers will be heard, the coppers that will determine State's "Campus Sweethearts," the ideal Lothario and Coquette, the favorite Romeo and Juliet. Forsooth, State's Sweethearts will be presented, the toasts of the ball.

Of late the Gym dances have not been doing too well financially, an interesting phenomena, in view of the undoubted fact that they have all been social successes. It seems to your fourth estater's line of combative reasoning that this should make for healthier and wealthier attendance. We guess it doesn't.

We know one thing, the incentive is there. Besides striking the keynote for a grand "State Day At The Fair," its novelty attraction is outstanding. We would like to see the students back something.

If necessary, with a knife!

AS THE GATER SEES IT

By ALEX EDELSTEIN
Editor

Through the efforts of one Claude "When am I going to get my pension?" Hanrahan, we understand that there will be quite a jig in the local dance bazaar tonight. It is the trumpet blare for "State Day at the Fair," the clarion call for the introduction of State's "Campus Sweethearts".

The appearance of Pete Rugolo's orchestra for this A.M.S. dance, a semi-annual affair, is also a commendable point. Rugolo and Benny Souza have had the only dance bands which have met with concentrated favor from the student body, speaking well for both Pete and Benny, local State products.

In considering the dance, one thing that stands out has been the workmanlike and efficient way that the "Sweethearts" contest has been handled by Phi Epsilon Mu, newly organized Men's P.E. fraternity. There has been nary a beef, a truly amazing phenomena for those who know their States and breakfast cereals well.

Proceeds of the "Sweethearts Contest" and profits of the dance tonight will go toward the rapidly dwindling loan fund, a worthy cause.

We, personally, are beginning to get irritated, vexed, harassed, molested, disturbed, tantalized, bothered, troubled, annoyed, or provoked, peeved, petulant, fretful, ruffled and exasperated, not to mention upset, by the recent chain of circumstances which threaten to lay low the prestige, unquote, of the Golden Gater.

In the last issue your editor confidently explained to his roustabout listeners and Mr. Gallagher that he was sure that the Gater had at last gotten an honest to goodness, factual news story, one that could not be doubted either as to content or composition.

We were proud of that. It represented true journalism, in all its gushy truth and honor. In fact, the only thing wrong with it was that we spelled Miss Margaret Wuensch's name wrong, which, bless us, we cannot spell even now.

Anywise, we revealed to our avid readers that Miss Caseboldt's 126B class in play production would present four one act plays and a monologue tonight.

But, just like the mother who gives the kid a sucker and then takes it away, they changed the date. Now its Monday and nobody's going to apologize.

And in this same Gater we have to apologize because we said State was host to the N.E.A. and they weren't.

Something's gotta be done!

LIDLIFTER

Dear Editor:

So Mr. Alex Edelstein doesn't think enough students voted at the recent student body elections. Well, before he pops off in Golden Gater editorials, he ought to learn one of the reasons why.

At the student body elections at least twenty graduate students from Frederic Burk were either told at the polls that they couldn't vote or sent to get notes from the registrar. Naturally, not very many went through all this red tape.

Why not, Mr. Edelstein, investigate the incompetence in running the election? Why not find out why files of all the underclassmen were available at the polls but not those of the graduate group? Why not keep the polls open until 5 p. m. so that those practice teaching off the campus would have an opportunity to vote?

At any rate, it is obvious why you should be the last person in the student body to complain about the voters who stayed away from the polls. Where would your TWO vote majority be if more upper division and graduate students had participated in the election?

SAMUEL TAORMINA,
Box 1723.

Answer: I am sure Mr. Taormina, that I "ought to" learn the reasons why more students didn't vote in the recent elections, and fortunately I do.

They just didn't care enough. It's too bad that the tremendous twenty to whom you refer didn't have the initiative to vote like the others. We are aware of what occurred at the polls, although no one was told that they "couldn't vote." We also know that the polls close at four o'clock because of a little stipulation in the constitution.

Your remark at the end of the letter merely outlines your character, which has a reminiscent odor.

In the future, don't address me twice. I happened to be editor of the last edition.

Sincerely,
Alex Edelstein,
Editor.

He's One Of The People

HITLER'S POLICY IS TO BLUFF TO THE LIMIT TO SET GERMANY BACK ON HER PRE-WAR FOOTING

"Give Danzig To Germany," Says Ed Pierce

He's in the saddle, and his spurs are dug deep. The horse of the German people will follow the guiding hands of Der Fuehrer until the desert has been crossed. When green fields are reached, the horse will graze alone. Then Hitler can start walking.

Though not in his words, this gives the essence of the ideas expressed by Walter A. Hacker, State's professor of geography and geology. Professor Hacker is a true student, and as such he prefers definite material and events upon which he may comment with a considerable degree of accuracy. Generalization entails too much guesswork and therefore is liable to be dangerous.

But with the hints thrown out by Dr. Hacker in the course of a discussion on the European situation combined with the material which is being daily made known through press and radio, there comes forth a sketchy review of what is happening on the other side of the broad Atlantic.

Hitler is the speaker of the German people. The confidence of these people he won because he was close to them . . . one of them. He was from the ranks of the common people, and he spoke the common language. Many persons of the more educated group believed Hitler could never win his position. Yet the old rule triumphed again . . . it takes a common man to lead the common people.

PEOPLE GLAD TO HAVE HIM THERE

Now that Hitler is in his present position, the people, educated and common, are glad to have him there . . . are glad to have him dig his spurs deep. It means internal pain; it means foreign displeasure, but it is the quickest way out.

Following the Great War, Germany was weak, broken. Out of the masses came a leader . . . Hitler. With Hitler at its head, Germany started a program designed to put new life blood in frail limbs. There were three possibilities: 1, try to pep up internal conditions; 2, commence a program of propaganda in an attempt to show that Germany is not a monster attempting to destroy the world; 3, start immediate and forceful action to reconstruct Germany . . . as a nation, and with respect to its relations with the rest of the world.

GERMANY WAS A WEAK NATION

The first possibility was definitely out. The Germans would do nothing but give their own individual hopes and aspirations, and their group action on labor and other problems. The second possibility, that of a continuous and progressive program of propaganda is the ideal if time and patience are abundant. But for a weak nation, time and patience are not abundant. Immediate action is necessary, and this is the third possibility.

Leaders of the western powers say: "But education through propaganda is the sane course." Hitler's only possible reply is that Germany must fight fire with fire, and the western powers are distinctly not sane. Diplomacy is rotten almost clear through. Men who would weep if a friend's dog died, find it very convenient to fight and destroy the dish-lipped Ubangi savages. It's great sport to dabble in giving away colonies, especially when you can give away somebody else's. Honor, reason and unselfishness have fled many of the diplomatic circles. Under these circumstances, Hitler's actions are fairly acceptable for the present time.

GERMANY DOES NOT WANT WAR!

But Germany does not want war! She will bluff to the very limit . . . and then stop. Germany might win a short war against one of the lesser powers. She would be almost certain to lose a protracted struggle. That is why she refuses to involve herself in a conflict with mighty Russia. Stalin and Hitler realize that England and France are attempting to engineer a deal whereby Germany and Russia may destroy each other; so they are steering clear of the shoals. Having failed in their purpose, England and France are now attempting to line up Rumania and her neighbors against the German front.

England and France, however, are not in favor of involving themselves in a war, simply because they do not want to endanger their democracies. It is a known fact that a dictatorship must be established in order to wage a successful war. The President of the United States has more dictatorial powers during war time than either Hitler or Mussolini have at the present time.

ONLY GUESS WORK REMAINS FOR FUTURE

With all these conditions in the present and the immediate past, it leaves only guesswork for the future. Events can be explained, reasons brought to light after something has occurred, but to prophesy . . . it is well nigh useless. Hitler wants Danzig. Almost all the inhabitants are German and want to have it. Why shouldn't he? Mainly because England and France are waiting for something such as this that they may find some means to put the clamps on Hitler. If Der Fuehrer has his way, Germany will add new blood to its emaciated form, and peace will reign in the world.

SPORT SHOTS

By JOHN PICHOTTO

It is always a problem when the time comes to choose an All-Star team in an intramural activity. Consider last term's football tournament, for instance. Over 230 men students participated and from that number the Gater sports staff and the Intramural Committee had to select a mere eleven men as representative of the finest players.

It can easily be seen, then, why not ONE, but THREE teams were chosen, along with 30 or 40 names on the honorable mention list. The same method was applied at the conclusion of the baseball tourney, thus reducing the ratio of dissatisfaction.

That is all well and good. But when it comes to choosing the nine men to represent San Francisco State College in the National A. A. U. volley ball championships on Treasure Island, May 15, we run into deep water.

Over 180 students are on the tournament roster and it is logical to assume that at least half would be willing, even anxious, to represent this college at the Fair. It is also logical to assume that each of the 17 teams in the tourney has at least one player who could be classified as an All-Star.

After serious discussion, the Intramural Committee chose one of many schemes to select the team. The winning team will select four players, the runner-ups will have three, the third place winners will choose two men, and the fourth team will have one representative. Thus, the winner in each division will have players on the All-Star team.

The manager of each team will be responsible for the selections and Wade Brummel, who first formulated the idea of going to Treasure Island, will sponsor the squad. There, now I feel better.

SHORT SPORT SHOTS

San Francisco State is a member of only one intercollegiate league . . . the Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

When "Pop" Warner issued the call for spring football practice at San Jose State, 80 men responded. On our campus, 60 men filed their intentions with Coach Boyle. ONLY 3,000 students are registered at the Spartan campus.

Over 60 students are already registered for Dan Farmer's Outdoor Recreation Camp at Cazadero. The two-week session commences May 31 and registration is limited to 100, so hurry if you plan to attend.

Included in the intramural program next semester is a Football Olympics. Kicking, passing, drop-kicking, and place-kicking will be featured with ribbon awards for the winners. The general plan is similar to the recently concluded Track and Field Olympics, and will run for one week.

Harry Robey drops in with the splendid idea of conducting an intramural golf tournament. He would have it all in one day, a Saturday at Ingleside. Keep it in mind for next semester, Harry.

Even after taking a severe trouncing from Sigma Pi Sigma, the men's faculty softball team is still undismayed. This time the odds will be even as they tackle an All-Star girls team next Friday noon on the Upper Field. Good luck, men!

Stanford, San Jose State Next For Divoteers

Closing the home season, State's golfers tangle with San Jose State tomorrow morning, May 6, at Ingleside Golf course in the second game of their annual series. The Spartans won the first match, 6-3. With only Stanford remaining on their slate after the San Jose match, local divot diggers will be trying to win blocks for themselves and teammates. So far this season only Co-captains Dick Hawkins and Dave Schutz, Bob Robinson, Harry Robey and Doc Smith have earned awards.

SCHUTZ, HAWKINS LEAD
Scheduled for the number one spot again will be Schutz and Hawkins, winners in their last efforts against College of Pacific and Cal Aggies. Number two will be held down by Robey and Gonzales Legarreta; number three will be done by Robinson and Runar Stone.

Without the aid of intercollegiate competition for the past week, the Tide golfers have been beating each other. Harry Robey holds a win over Bob Robinson and a split with Dave Schutz, who in turn has beaten Dick Hawkins, Gon Legarreta, and lost to Ru Stone. Red Lewis, most improved man on the squad, has beaten Ken Portello and Jack Quinn, and may see action Saturday, depending on the outcome of his challenge round against Legarreta today.

RECORD TURNOUT

The season's record shows four collegiate victories and three ties for the golf team as compared to seven beatings. Because of the record turnout this year, pairings have been continually changing. Captains Hawkins and Schutz have won matches against Cal Aggies, College of Pacific, Marin J. C., and San Mateo J. C. to lead the parade. They are followed by Robey and Robinson, who will be separated tomorrow to help their teammates win awards.

Although the collegiate season ends officially next Saturday when State invades Stanford, members of the squad are expected to enter the Call-Bulletin, Millbrae and Ingleside tournaments that will be held in June.

NETSTERS END GOOD SEASON

State's only team which is in an intercollegiate conference tied for second place in the Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Association race.

The Purple and Gold netmen should show an even greater improvement next year, as it is losing only one man—Doug Crary.

Heading the returning veterans will be Jack Witt, number one man and a real standby. Though hindered in his playing almost constantly by a bad back, he has been a threat consistently and very seldom lost a match.

Playing his first competitive tennis, Ed Kohlhauf downed other players of proven ability on the local ladder to win the number two spot, while another new man who worked up quickly was Norbert Prins, who played third man part of the season.

Crary and Ken Kim, who ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, both get their sweater awards for three years' service, while the latter will have another year left to earn his blanket.

That "mighty mite" of football, basketball, baseball and swimming fame, Billy Hammond, ranked next on the ladder. His shortness of stature and limb was more than made up by speed of foot and agility.

Joe Sanz established himself as a real threat to the lower-ranking opponents. Sanz and Hammond are both finishing their second year of competition, and each have two left.

Willard Lincoln should be able to come through next year, with the added experience. Glen Minuth, Vic Lewin and Gene Burton are freshmen who show promise, and if Ronnie Lindlow returns next year, he might win his first tennis block.

Sigma Pi Sigma Downs Music Federation Team

Displaying the type of fielding that won them the intramural championship, the Sigma Pi Sigma baseballers downed the Music Federation nine, 3 to 0, last Wednesday noon on the upper field.

The fraternity team got one run in the second inning when Edelstein stole home on a bad pitch, and two more in their next time at bat after a short hitting spree. McGann, Marder and Fischer each teed off on Martin's offerings for clean hits.

Aside from a bad third inning, Martin pitched good ball for the music majors. Anderson tossed well for the Sigmas, allowing only four hits during the seventh innings.

Sigma Pi Sigmamen Bragg, Cumming, and Quartararo were outstanding in their defensive play, as were Fischer, Dunn, and Mailho for the Music Federation.

Following is the lineup of the two teams:

Sigma Pi Sigma
Buckley (capt.)	Catcher
Anderson	Pitcher
Bragg	First base
Edelstein	Second base
McGann	Third base
Fischer	Shortstop
Marder	Center field
Quartararo	Right field
Music Federation
Martin	Catcher
Garzoli	Pitcher
Richardson	First base
Stanley	Second base
Fischer (capt.)	Third base
Crary	Shortstop
Mailho	Center field
Dunn	Right field

100, Mile Marks Go On Books As Track Team Ends Great Season

Completing one of their most successful years in track and field competition, the Golden Tide cindermen compiled a series of most impressive times and distances. Though but two school records were broken, the 1939 season gave State its best year as far as ability in all events was concerned. Over eighty men turned out for the sport.

Luther Theofield broke Ed Henry's 1934 record of 9.9 in the 100 yard dash when he twirled off a 9.8 against Santa Rosa, beating out the Rosan's ace, Battaglia.

Fred Klein smashed Stan Kuder's 1937 mile run to pieces when he knocked three seconds off a 4:34.1 mile, bringing it down to 4:31.6.

Below are listed the best times of the best man in each:

100 yards dash—Theofield	9.8
220 yard dash—Theofield	21.6
440 yard run—Crane	51.5
880 yard run—Young	2:02.4
Schwab	2:04.5
Mile run—Fred Kline	4:31.6
Two mile run—Fred Kline	10:15.3
High hurdle—Otis	15.6
Low hurdles—Shepard	25
High jump—Parker	6 ft. 2 in.
Broad jump—Theofield	23 ft. 4 in.
Pole vault—Otis	12 ft. 3 in.
Shot—Gittins	42 ft. 8 1/4 in.
Pantages	42 ft. 8 in.
Discus—Gittins	125 ft. 2 in.
Javelin—Carlson	162 ft. 6 in.
Relay (Crane, Lindlow, Wiggin, Gustafson)	3:34.8

Of all these men, only Pantages, Kline and Leavitt will leave the squad. If the others register next semester, and many frosh enter, S. F. State can look forward to still a better year in 1940.

Intramural

After nine days of competition in the intramural volley ball race, the favored teams are clinging to slim leads. In Division A the Cadavers lead with two wins and no defeats while Division B is topped by Sigma Pi Sigma, also with two wins and no losses. The Botany Bombers will give the frat boys trouble when they meet in the final game of the series on May 12.

Phi Epsilon Mu and Characters are tied for Division C lead, each with two victories against no defeats. These teams clash on May 10 and should be hard pressed. The Playground Directors and the 184's lead Division D with two wins apiece. These squads tangle on May 12 in a game which will decide division championship.

In last Wednesday's game, Nello Biancalano led the 184 team to a convincing victory over the Question Marks by the score of 38-23. Art Acker, Mize, Mon, Messer, Sam Silverman, Quinn and Hogan played well for the winners. Pandazes and Waxman led the losers.

The powerful Phi Epsilon Mu fraternity won by default on the same day as the Whizzes failed to appear in full force. Disappointed because they were anxious to get in some practice were Co-managers Bill Plutte and Claude Hanrahan, Bill Abbey, Mario Machi, Dave Schiller, Chad Reade, Lee

Successful Season For Golden Tide Ends This Week

PURPLE AND GOLD GRID SQUADS CLASH

Spring Practice Ends With Interteam Game Of Football Players

Varsity grid mentor, Dick Boyle, will send his first State pigskin troopers to the firing line next Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. on Roberts' Field when his Purple Purgers meet assistant coach Tom Bragg's Golden Tide in a grand climax battle to State's first spring football rehearsal.

The game, which Boyle expects to convert into an annual Purple vs. Gold intersquad affair, promises to be closely contested with many of last fall's grid standouts bedecking the line-ups of both elevens.

Tentative line-ups include:

PURPLE	GOLD
Moore	LER
Olson	LTR
DeGhetaldi	LGR
Dahl	C
Winters	RGI
Fairbanks	RTL
Padilla	REL
Quinn	Q
Reade	LHR
Chandler	RHL
McDonald	F
	Schiller

Outdoor Girl Leaders

Results of the popularity poll conducted late yesterday afternoon in the Golden Gater Outdoor Girl Contest found six of the fourteen entrants qualifying for today's finals to be run off at 3 p. m. on the campus tennis courts.

Tillie Rastad was in first position with 48 votes, just ten more than runner-up Louise Vallarino. Jean Van Arsdale was in third position, followed by Fran Twohig, Audrey Stewart and Bee Cleary. Barbara Sullivan, Margie Greer and Jane Read were eliminated by a close margin with the other entrants bringing up the rear.

Carrothers, Harold Chandler, Jessie Turner and Jim King.

OLSON TIGERS VS. 184'S
Today's feature attraction will bring together the Olson Tigers and the 184's on the Upper Field. The Tigers are co-captained by R. Olson and W. White and on the roster are L. Gordon, J. Smith, E. Poole and M. Morena. Biancalano and Acker will present the 184's in full force for this game as a loss would throw them out of the first place tie for the lead in Division D.

Art Sanchez will present the Buzzards against the Question Marks in the other game on the Upper Field and will claim the services of Pete Rodman, Bill Burton, Ratje, Gore, Staub, Tom, Pearson and Brown.

The Question Marks are managed by Gregory Pandazes and on the roster are Pete Waxman, B. Wilford, K. Scott, F. Beckford, Inglebright, Murphy, Dean and F. Hogan.

SWIMMING LEADS INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS IN '39

All Teams Leave Impressive Records

By BILL GIANDONI

With swimming and basketball leading the parade, San Francisco State's athletic teams set a new standard in ability and competition for the year of 1939. It was a series of banner seasons for the Golden Tide teams.

The basketballers started the festivities by mopping up on everything in the bay region for the first half of the season, destroying such formidable opponents as the Olympic Club, Y. M. I. and San Jose State.

However, scholastic misunderstandings plus injuries cost plenty of games during the remainder of the season, though the star team lost a couple of thrillers to California and Stanford.

PARIS, HAAKE BREAK RECORDS

Breaking two freshmen national collegiate records, the swimmers set a new style for State in this sport. Henry Paris and John Haake were the record smashers. San Francisco State's track team won five out of seven track meets to lead the way for the tennis and baseball teams, who won four out of eight and five out of fifteen, respectively.

The Tide trackmen, sparked by Otis, Theofield and Pantages, copped five out of seven. Starting a bit early, they lost to a strong squad from San Mateo J. C., home of several P. A. A. champions. Later they fell victim to the Spartans from San Jose, who skinned the Golden Tide, 81½ to 49½.

Excepting these two, the team beat Cal Aggies, the Wildcats from Chico State, Santa Rosa J. C., S. F. J. C. and finished off on College of the Pacific, for five out of seven.

The State tennis team tied with Santa Clara for second place in the N. C. I. T. A. by winning four out of eight matches.

The Tidemen defeated St. Mary's twice, USF two times, and Cal Aggies once, in a non-conference match.

The Spartans from San Jose and the Santa Clara Broncos took each two matches to account for State's four conference losses.

HAAS, MAILHO PITCH

The baseball team seemed to have a hard time coordinating their abilities. Brilliant fielding and steady pitching was the order of the season, but weak batting lost most of the games.

The team won five out of fifteen games, beating Fresno State, Santa Barbara State, Cal Aggies, San Mateo J. C. and Marin J. C.

The season ended with Haas and Mailho pitching most of the games. The fellows rose to great heights in the games with Marin J. C. and San Mateo J. B., beating Marin 13 to 0 and San Mateo 12 to 1.

take the necessary steps to assure a new campus for S. F. State. Senate Bill 347, which provides for the sale of the present Haight street property, estimated at $450,000, was introduced by Senator John F. Shelley of San Francisco. The bill passed the Senate by a unanimous vote, was referred to the Assembly committee on state colleges and thence to the Ways and Means Committee.

Contrary to a report in Wednesday morning's San Francisco Examiner, which said the proposal was defeated, the companion bill 261, which appropriates $300,000, was given a "do pass" recommendation last Tuesday night by the same committee.

Initiation Announced By S. P. S.

Climaxing three months of active peldging, President George Fenneman announced that the Sigma Pi Sigma's neophytes had received their final instructions at last night's meeting for both the informal and formal initiations.

The "informal," under the direction of Vice-President Louis Quartararo will be held Sunday. The formal initiation is to be held at the home of Fenneman; after which the newly inducted members will be the guests of the fraternity for dinner and further entertainment for the evening. Frank Fenton, faculty sponsor, will attend.

INT. RELATIONS GOES KAI TAI

A Chinese theater party and dinner will be held by the majors in International Relations tonight at the Shanghai Low Cafe in Chinatown.

Featured speaker will be Mrs. Kiang Kang-hu, recently arrived from Peking. She is the wife of Dr. Kiang Kang-hu, noted scholar.

Dr. Kang-hu has recently completed a book on Chinese civilization. His wife will talk on Chinese conditions and later act as interpreter for the theater party.

Plans will be discussed at the dinner for the further development of the World Affairs Forum under the leadership of majors in international relations.

The forum is attracting many students who participate in debates on world affairs every Thursday at 12:30 in room 208.

PHI LAMBDA CHI PLEDGE INITIATION ON MAY 10

Phi Lambda Chi pledges will be formally initiated May 10th, at a dinner at the Dawn Club, where the officers will be formally installed.

New officers include: Lois Hess, president; Eleanor Plas, vice-president; Dorothy Barielles, secretary; Polly Ann McCarthy, treasurer; Margaret Robinson, historian.

Tonight the members will hold their annual spring dance at the St. Francis Hotel.

The final activity of Phi Lambda Chi this semester will be their annual Mother's Day tea, May 13 at the Phi Lambda House. Members of the women faculty are invited. Helen Newell is chairman.

CASEBOLT PRODUCES 5 DRAMAS

One-Act Plays And Monologue Appear In Little Theater

Five one-act plays and a monologue will be presented in the Little Theater Monday by Miss Jessie Casebolt's English 126 B class.

The dramas by the play production group are open for all members of the student body with reservations being made for student body card holders.

The date of the production, originally scheduled for tonight, has been postponed until Monday because of interference with other student activities.

The plays and monologue will be presented as follows:

1. "Never Too Old," by Ryerson Clements, concerns an actress who tries to stay young forever. The cast will be Jannette Jennings, Iva Beth Cain, Florence Lewis and Clara McGee.
2. "The Minuet," by Lewis Parker, the author of "Disraeli" with the cast as Benton MacMillan, Evelyn Geinzer, and Charles Buttera.
3. "Cheerful Earful," a monologue of a pessimistic woman visiting a sick friend, to be given by Margaret Wuensch.
4. "Fleurette & Co.," by Essex Dane, about a French dressmaker who outwits a lady of fashion, will be given by Molly Levin and Anne Lunquist.
5. "Ladies Alone," by Ryerson Clements will conclude the program. It involves three women alone on a moonlit night in spring, and the cast is Sylvia Guthertz, Wilma Erickson and Gloria Barusch.

GATER MAKES MISTAKE; STATE ISN'T HOST

Tuesday's issue of the Golden Gater ran a story in its fourth page on the National Education Association, headed "S. F. State Hosts N. E. A., P. E. to Present Program."

The article stated that "Mrs. F. H. Stevenson of the department will be in charge (of the program)." Mrs. Stevenson immediately caught up the publications department as personalized by Jim Martin; objecting that although the convention will be held in San Francisco, and many of S. F. State's faculty will probably be taking part in the activities—State is not the official host.

More: the Physical Education department has no official responsibility for the program, which is to be staged by the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Patrons Association Holds Last Meeting

Discussion of projects to swell the student loan fund took the lead in the meeting of the Patrons Association last Wednesday afternoon.

Entertainment was furnished by students Earl Saxton and Ann Lundquist, and faculty member Hugh Gordon, who described his streamlined chess set.

It was announced at the meeting that the association was given merit awards for the best program and the most male members.

1939 Franciscan To Make Appearance As Scheduled

The 1939 Franciscan, edited by Jean Dooley, will make its campus appearance on Monday, May 15, according to staff releases.

The usual procedure will be followed with the seniors receiving their books first, then the other classes.

At the publications dinner, May 12, the official dedication of the book will be made by Miss Dooley.

"The large and adequate section of sport and athletic activities will please the athletic department," stated sports editor Ernest Miguel.

"The main feature of the book will be the variety and amount of pictures making it more of a pictorial review of this year's activities," said the editor.

Sigma Alpha Eta Dance

Sigma Alpha Eta's noon dance, next Wednesday will spotlight the winner of the $30 scholarship sponsored by SAE.

Sigma Alpha Eta is defending their position as having the largest attendance at a noon dance last semester. Vern Rees, courting this year's honors, promises some novel entertainment with still another "suh-pwize!" feature to be revealed later.

ability; for the extemporaneous must "whip up" a speech with nothing more to draw on than his innate ability and previous experience.

Through the assistance of Dean Mary A. Ward and Miss Florence Vance, registrar, the tourney will be staged at State proper (or at least in the annexes) instead of at Freddie Burk, where in past years the high school lads and lassies have rubbed the crease out of, and "runs" into, their respective britches and hose.

Another obstacle to a successful tournament was discovered last January, when it was still a "one-day affair"; for the participants were forced to remain until 2:30 Sunday morning! Hence the enlargement into a "two-day affair."

The public is cordially invited to attend the (wait until I take a breath) Eighth Semi-Annual Invitational High School Forensic Tournament to be held today and tomorrow.

Anyone interested, and capable of judging the speaking contests is invited to contact debate manager, Henry Bartels in Annex A-6.

LID-LIFTER

(Editor's note: The following lid-lifter was written for the purpose of explaining the position of the English department in regard to the Subject B examination which has been the focal point of student complaint.)

Dear Lidlifter:
The Subject B requirement was established by the English Department for credential students. The purpose of the examination is two fold: (1) to examine students on literature they may have to teach in the primary or junior high schools, and (2) to examine the students on literature for a general cultural background. The whole college believes that its graduates should know something of American, English, and World Literature because the teacher in the public schools is a cultural leader in his community. The examination questions, based on a reading list, are designed to cover important facts concerning periods of literature and chief ideas and characters in poems, plays, novels and essays.

HUGH BAKER,
Instructor of English.
